

PLEN

Public Leadership Education Network

College women interested in careers in international policy are invited to attend:

Women & International Policy Seminar
Washington, DC
May 23-27, 2011

2010 International Policy students with Michelle Bernard, President & CEO, Independent Women's Forum

Registration Deadline:
May 6, 2011

Photo by Darin Kim

Learn from women working in Washington on international issues that affect foreign policy every day!

***NEW! Specialized Policy Tracks in Global Health/Education and Human Rights*****

- Learn about the latest international policy issues concerning women around the world, immigration, development, the global economy and more.
- Discover professional skills and make contacts that will help you get a job in Washington
- Explore the major initiatives of Secretary Clinton and the U.S. Department of State

Last Year's Speakers From...

- U.S. Department of State
- Peace Corps
- United Nations Population Fund
- The World Bank
- U.S. Institute for Peace
- The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Visit www.PLEN.org for more information about the Women & International Policy Seminar and PLEN's six other leadership programs.

Preparing Women to Lead